

We are excited to announce that WE Mural Festival will be taking place on October 16-20th in Sand City CA. Twelve artists have been invited to participate this year. Some will be painting large scale murals throughout the week while others will be participating in a local art battle at our final celebration on October 20th from 4-8 outside of Post No Bills brewery. Artists will be announced the next coming weeks on Instagram at @talkingwallsart.

If you are local and would like a chance to apply for the battle, please email:
info@talkingwalls.art.

If selected, artists are given a $250 participation stipend, $500 will be awarded for Judges Pick and $500 to the artist with the most crowd votes. So BRING YOUR FRIENDS!

But before the art battle begins, join the Talking Walls team on the 20th for a bicycle tour at 1pm. Visit each mural, watch artists add finishing touches to their murals, hear the stories behind the mural. If you would like to join, bike enthusiasts will be meeting outside of Post No Bills brewery. Don't forget your bicycle and water!

This year's mural festival is curated and organized by TalkingWalls. Visit them at www.talkingwalls.art. Follow the journey and find updates on Instagram at @talkingwallsart.

The Talking Walls Art team is made up of a scrappy husband and wife duo who share a passion for bringing art to the streets with the notion that ART IS FOR EVERYONE! Cameron, with his boundless creativity (walking the line between crazy and genius), has over twenty years of mural experience, 7 years of curating mural festivals, and no shortage of great ideas. Crystal, a former middle school teacher, brings her love for art and an indefinable skillset, that of only a middle school teacher, as well as her love for order and organization. The two along with their giant network of fellow artists—which also happen to all be really good humans, have not just transformed towns, but are slowly transforming the perception of graffiti and street art and quelling fears one mural at a time!
